DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bezos et al.
3. Bezos et al. teaches (independent claims 1 and 7) a method and system for e-mail-based opt-in marketing, and for encouraging consumers and webmasters for participating in said marketing program, the method comprising: providing a Web server 132, which reads on an ad server and at least on webmaster server connected to the Internet, and having at least one associate computer 200 (internet-enabled subscriber device) connected to said Internet (col. 9 lines 54-61 including Fig. 2); providing an associate database 160 connected to said ad server/Web server 132 (col. 10 line 45); providing software instructions on each said webmaster server for collecting an e-mail address for said subscriber device and storing said e-mail address on said database 160 by having an operator of said subscriber device input said e-mail address and make a selection to opt-in for delivery of information and/or content to said e-mail address (col. 10 lines 11-15 and 41-45); and providing software instructions on said ad server to facilitate delivery of said information and/or content to said associate computer 200/subscriber device, wherein said information and/or content includes descriptions of the merchant and its products, which reads on an ad (col. 10 lines 50-55).
4. Note that an associate may be a consumer or a webmaster. Hence, Bezos et al. also teaches (independent claims 13 and 17): providing software to said associate/consumer/webmaster to allow said associate/consumer/webmaster to refer other consumers/webmasters to said e-mail marketing program as referrals (col. 1 lines 62-66); and providing compensation to said associate/consumer/webmaster for any referrals (col. 3 lines 19-21), where the compensation also reads on an incentive provided to said associate/consumer to responding to ads (by making purchases), and also reads on an incentive provided to said associate/webmaster for subscribing other associates/webmasters to said e-mail marketing program.

5. Bezos et al. also teaches at the citations given above claims 2, 4-6, 8, 10-12, 16 and 19. Bezos et al. also teaches claims 3, 9, 14, 15 and 18 (col. 7 line 50).
